

SPOKANE CIVIC THEATRE®

MARCH 17, 2020

To our loyal Patrons and Community,

At Spokane Civic Theatre, we continue to monitor and respond to the COVID-19 outbreak impacting our community and world.

Following Governor Inslee's statewide emergency proclamation temporarily shutting down entertainment venues, it is with a heavy heart that we will be postponing all Season 73 programming, including Cabaret, The Humans, Exile, and Funny Girl, and Academy classes and productions. Like you, we are waiting for further guidance in order to reschedule and will communicate information as soon as it is available.

If you have tickets, we ask that you:

- Keep your ticket(s) and/or receipt so that we can reschedule you once postponed dates are released
- Exchange your ticket for a ticket in the same theater (Main Stage vs. Studio Theatre) that can be used at any time next Season (availability dependent)
- Put the value of your ticket(s) on account for future use at Spokane Civic Theatre (like store credit)
- Donate your ticket and support us while we pause
- Request a refund via email to boxoffice@spokanecivictheatre.com

Our Box Office will remain open at this time by phone only, Tuesday-Friday, 2-6PM:

509-325-2507

Lastly, at this vulnerable time, please consider investing in us for the long haul and purchase your tickets for Season 74 now.

We look forward to safely reestablishing momentum and growing through this Season and next in anticipation of our paramount 75th Season nearly one year away.

Thank you for your dedicated support.

Sincerely,

Your Spokane Civic Theatre
